Connecticut State Police - Troop A to Receive Toys From The Ganfield Elementary School in Southbury

On Wednesday, December 15, 2004, at 9:00 am, students, teachers and administrators of the Ganfield Elementary School in Southbury, Connecticut will be presenting donated toys to the CT State Police. This presentation will take place at Ganfield Elementary School on Old Field Rd. in Southbury.

Through fundraising efforts headed by students and faculty of this school, a generous amount of toys were collected. These toys were collected to benefit the children of the Waterbury Neighborhood Association and children of the Southbury area. They will be turned over to the Southbury Resident Trooper, Tpr. Mike Gravel, and Southbury Training School S.R.O., Tfc. Joe Salmeri who will be helping find homes for the toys.

We commend the students and faculty of the Ganfield School for their fundraising efforts and are thankful for their support of the Connecticut State Police toy drive!

***All media are welcome to attend; please check in with the school office upon arrival.
